

Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions govern your use of GLOB LOGISTICS NETWORK, an international logistics network comprising independent companies specializing in the logistics industry. GLOB employs innovative marketing and IT initiatives, including a web platform, to enhance profitability for our members. These terms of use apply to the use of this website and its affiliates:

1. Membership Application Form:

- To become a GLOB member, companies are welcome to apply without any exclusions based on market status, company size, specialization, business experience, or existing agent/partner affiliations.
- All prospective members are required to complete the application form provided on the GLOB website, whether introduced by an existing member or not. The application form must include a copy of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, Business Registration Number, and, in the case of legal entities, shareholder identification.
- GLOB exclusively accepts companies that are legally established in their respective countries. GLOB will conduct a review to verify the authenticity of the provided information.
- Members must be local or regional companies with strong reputations in their specific industry operations and professional qualifications. This will be validated through a minimum of two references from carriers, shippers, and other agents. Additional documentation may be requested by GLOB as needed.
- Applicants should possess at least 3 years of experience in the freight forwarding and logistics industry.
- Companies with existing memberships in other networks are eligible for GLOB membership.
- Members are encouraged to list their certifications and licenses to showcase their expertise within GLOB and to other members.
- GLOB will not publicly disclose the rejection of any new member.
- Upon approval of a new member's admission, GLOB will send an approval document (letter of acceptance) and the first annual membership fee invoice.
- A newly approved member may withdraw within seventy-two (72) hours (3 workdays) after paying the membership fee. In such cases, GLOB will issue a refund of 85% (eighty-five percent) of the fee, while the remaining 15% (fifteen percent) will cover administrative expenses, and no further refund will be granted.

- Members must promptly pay their annual Membership Fees when they become due. GLOB will send annual reminders for fee payments, and it is advisable for members to make timely payments.

These terms and conditions are essential for maintaining a professional and transparent network of logistics experts within GLOB LOGISTICS NETWORK.

2. General Rules:

- GLOB is an exclusive network of independent project freight forwarders and international logistics companies, specializing in home removals, freight forwarding, transportation, logistics, customs brokerage, and related services for imports and exports.
- Members can access the contact details of other Members by logging into GLOB's website at www.glob-network.com. Upon registration, you will receive an account login and an initial password. It is your sole responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of your account login and password, as well as any information published on the website. Please update and revise your password regularly and promptly notify GLOB if there is any unauthorized use of your account or any breach of security.
- Members are required to update GLOB with any changes in their contact details to keep the Register updated and current. Members are liable for any damage caused to other members or GLOB due to inaccuracies in their information.
- A password-enabled platform is available exclusively for GLOB members to share their views, opinions, suggestions, and feedback, as well as seek answers to their queries from other Members.
- All notifications and communications between members and GLOB must occur exclusively via email, in English. Therefore, it is essential for all GLOB members to have at least one person in their office capable of handling communications with an internationally acceptable standard of spoken and written English.
- GLOB members are encouraged to use official company email accounts for business communications and refrain from using free email services such as Hotmail, Yahoo, etc. Any communication sent to the registered email address will be considered proof of receipt. Members are responsible for configuring their devices to accept email communications from GLOB.
- When members complete their profiles, including the information they consider appropriate, GLOB will review the submitted information. GLOB reserves the right to reject or modify information that does not align with accuracy, contains offensive language, or violates GLOB's legal and contractual policies.
- GLOB will share information about the products and services offered by its members with business partners to facilitate new business opportunities among them.

- The products and services offered by GLOB members are the exclusive responsibility of the suppliers. Members are solely responsible for their actions resulting from negotiations among them and must assume all associated risks. GLOB is exempt from any liability arising from these transactions.
 - GLOB will not interfere in negotiations and relationships between its members. Members are expected to interact with respect, courtesy, and good faith to maintain a positive business relationship and meet each other's needs. Products and services offered by GLOB members should be privately negotiated among participants, based on effective communication and agreement on specific parameters outlined in a formal contract, including obligations, responsibilities, location, and currency of payment.
 - GLOB is not responsible for any damages resulting from negotiations inside or outside the network between its members. The primary objective of GLOB is to provide practical strategies for members to expand their business.
 - GLOB provides specific emblems to its partners based on an analysis and verification of their compliance with the requirements for receiving these emblems. Emblems will be displayed on each member's profile.
 - The products and services offered by members through the network, along with their associated actions, are the sole responsibility of the members themselves. GLOB is not responsible for any aspect of these offerings.
3. Termination and Revocation of Membership: Membership of GLOB may be terminated under the following circumstances:
1. A member submits an express request in writing at least thirty (30) days before the annual fee renewal.
 2. Non-payment of the initial Membership Fees within 30 days after being accepted for Membership.
 3. The death of a member operating as a sole proprietor.
 4. A breach or violation of any of the standards set out in this document.
 5. The involvement in any illegal acts by the company or its shareholders.
 6. The failure to maintain the high standards established by the GLOB board, resulting in excessive numbers of Nonconformity reports raised by other members.
 7. Disregard for maintaining effective membership, as notified in writing with a minimum period of 30 (thirty) days.
 8. Actions that harm the image and standing of GLOB in the eyes of other members and/or the public.

In the event of termination or revocation of Membership for any reason, a notification will precede the action, granting the member 10 (ten) days from the date of the notification to present their defense. GLOB will not disclose the reason for the revocation of any member, and the use of trademarks must cease immediately by both the member and GLOB. Members agree that all actions taken by the GLOB Board in respect of Membership are final and binding, with no mechanism for appeal.

4. Membership Fees: Each member shall pay an annual fee as specified on the website. All fees cover a 12-month period from the date of acceptance and include a bank processing fee if funds are electronically sent to the GLOB bank account. Services and member access will be granted through a username and password. Membership will be automatically renewed for another year if GLOB is not notified in writing of the member's withdrawal within thirty (30) days before the completion of each year of membership. All payments must be made exclusively to our Bank of America account or our PayPal account, as indicated on our invoice for security purposes. Please note that GLOB will solely communicate through our official domain, www.glob-network.com. It's important to understand that Glob operates under the jurisdiction of Bling Logistics Network and functions under its umbrella. Resignation or revocation of Membership during the year will not entitle members to any refund of the Annual Fees. These members will also not have access to the full contact information of new members, the benefits of partnerships through their own dashboard, or the ability to attend meetings or workshops sponsored by GLOB.
5. Annual Summit: GLOB hosts an annual summit once a year with the aim of fostering engagement and facilitating new business connections and interactions among participants. These meetings allow members to get to know the Network management staff and current members. They not only help members achieve their goals but also enable them to build strong relationships within the network. Membership obliges members to attend the Glob Annual General Meeting (AGM) at least once every two years. All circumstances related to meeting attendance will be individually evaluated and are at the discretion of Glob Network Management. Each attendee or group of attendees who registers for the Glob Summit is subject to the stated terms and conditions.
6. Glob Payment Protection Plan: The Payment Protection Plan (PPP) is designed to help cover charged-off accounts between Glob members who have paid the fee for this plan. Additionally, it allows communication among members about any anomalies observed, enabling the association to take action against members who do not fulfill their financial responsibilities within the network. Through this plan, Glob commits to providing a monthly list of the Network Security Agency, highlighting the updated status of every member. By implementing this plan, we can significantly reduce the network's exposure to dishonest forwarders, contributing to the success of all members. If you choose to participate in the Payment Protection Plan, please follow these guidelines:

 - For the first year of membership, members are covered for up to USD 5,000. After the first year of membership, this coverage increases to USD 10,000.
 - The Payment Protection Plan covers a maximum payment of USD 10,000 per year. Invoices exceeding USD 10,000 are not eligible for claims.
 - Members participating in the PPP must remain updated with their membership payables (annual fees) and maintain good standing within the network.
 - The Payment Protection Plan is optional and available to all Glob Members.

- The membership registration fee for the Payment Protection Plan is USD 500 per year, in addition to the Annual Membership Fee.
 - The Payment Protection Plan covers disputes related to freight charges and costs associated with international shipping between Glob members, excluding errors.
 - To participate in the Payment Protection Plan, members should submit their applications using the Glob Payment Protection Plan Form.
 - Glob reserves the right to change, modify, add, or remove portions of these Terms and Conditions at its discretion. It is the responsibility of all members to periodically review these terms for changes.
 - All members acknowledge that they have read and understood the terms governing the PPP by filling out the form to participate in the PPP.
7. Payments & Profit Sharing: Invoices must be paid within 30 days from the date of issue, provided that both members have activated the Payment Protection Plan within their membership. Any charges or payments owed between GLOB LOGISTICS NETWORK agents, as per the monthly Statement of Account (SOA), must be submitted either by mailing a bank check acceptable in the country of receipt or by wire transfer to the bank account specified by the GLOB LOGISTICS NETWORK agent. Payment must be made within a maximum of fifteen (15) working days from the receipt of the SOA.
 8. Legal Liability: GLOB shall not be responsible for any damages or legal claims beyond the amount of the Annual Fee paid in the preceding year by the specific party. Members shall not be personally liable for any debts, obligations, or liabilities of GLOB solely due to their membership. All terms and applicable rules are governed by the laws of the state of Florida, USA. These Conditions and any claim or dispute arising from this agreement shall be subject to Florida, USA law and regulation and the exclusive jurisdiction of Florida State, USA courts.
 9. Privacy Policy: Our Privacy Policy governs your visit to <https://glob-network.com> and explains how we collect, safeguard, and disclose information resulting from your use of our Service. We use your data to provide and improve the Service. By using the Service, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy. Unless otherwise defined in this Privacy Policy, the terms used herein have the same meanings as those in our Terms and Conditions. Our 'Terms and Conditions' ('Terms') govern all use of our Service and, together with the Privacy Policy, constitute your agreement with us ('Agreement'). Access the privacy policy document, available for both our members in the resources section and non-members in the registration area.
